The Sacramento Bee says there are no people in the world who are greater monopolists than the merchants of San Francisco would be if they had the power. They sit at the Golden Gate gathering toll from all things that pass through. They made corners in everything they could before the transcontinental railroad was put in operation, and when opportunity offered, doubled the price of all goods that they had control of. In fact they made a business of and studied how to plunder the people of the interior by demanding two or three prices, not for scarce goods, but for goods that they had cornered. And now that the telegraph and the railroad are in operation their little game of plundering the people of the interior has been broken up, whereas they are especially mad.

The paternal Department of Agriculture warns the guileless farmer to be on his guard against the wicked devices of the speculator. For weeks we have been told every day that the wheat crop would be the largest the country ever raised. Starting with 500,000,000 bushels as a minimum, the figures have been gradually worked up to 600,000,000, and one daring prophet, multiplying a guesswork average by an imaginary yield per acre, comes out with an estimate of 700,000,000 bushels. The department tells the farmers to pay no heed to these figures and says they are wild and extravagant estimates.

It is said that the United States land offices have received instructions from headquarters to permit no further payments to be made on placer mining claims which will exceed 20 acres in any one application, until further instructions are received from the General Land office. The valuable placer ground of the coast has been gobbled up by the hundreds of acres, in many instances by men who merely hold it for speculative purposes.

One of the worst cases of petty bulldozing at the Convention was where a played-out politician offered a candidate for Secretary of State three votes from Lander county in exchange for a deputyship. A man who lacks the nerve to make an open fight for a place on the State ticket, and hangs about Conventions with a blackmailing proposal to fight or stand in with a man in the question of a deputyship, ought to be promptly kicked out of politics.

The wine business of California is no small item in the resources of that State. About 10,000,000 gallons of wine are produced annually, and about 2,000,000 gallons are yearly sent eastward, where it is adorned with foreign labels and sold as an imported article. The quality is said to be good, and even some professed connoisseurs are deceived when California wine is offered them under the guise of well-known foreign names.

Truck wheels on an engine of the New York and New Haven road have been used since 1876, running in that time 185,620 miles. They are still in perfect order. They cost $100 apiece and were made by Frederick Krupp, the great cannon maker. Ordinary wheels cost $14 each and run for 50,000 miles before becoming useless.

The new Congressional apportionment makes the next electoral college consist of 402 votes, and consequently a majority will be 202. Under the last apportionment the electoral vote was 369, and a majority 185.

The convention which convened today at Oswego, N. Y., will be one of the most important ever held in that State, in view of the recent impulse the temperance cause has received in other States.

Lack of space has prevented our noticing the Republican ticket. Fall justice will be done the subject later.

A Treaty of Peace Between the U. S. and C. F.

Responsible officials of the Union Pacific state that on a recent visit of General Manager Clark and Freight Agent Shelby to San Francisco, traffic arrangements more equal and advantageous to both companies than ever before made were consummated with the Central Pacific, and that a treaty of permanent peace has been established. They will be heard in October.

Railroad Matters.

Chicago, September 6. It is the general opinion among railroad men here that the recent purported purchase of the Hannibal & St. Joe railroad by Gould is no really to strengthen the Wabash system, but in the interest of the Union Pacific, that this course is taken in retaliation on the Burlington road for extending its lines to Denver in competition with the Union Pacific.

The party consists of Edwin Smith of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, in charge; Prof. H. S. Pritchett, Astronomer of Washington University, St. Louis, and Messrs. Augustus Storey and Gustave Thedkue of Boston, photographers. The Adams Express Company to-day forwarded a through car to San Francisco containing the fine and delicate astronomical instruments necessary for making precise calculations and observations, and these will be safely loaded on a vessel which will take the party to New Zealand. They will leave San Francisco on the 15th and be absent about eight months. This time will not be consumed altogether in making transit observations, but the party have a number of other scientific experiments in prospect before submitting the results of their trips to the International Convention of Scientists which will be held at Paris early in 1883.

A Republican Victory in Vermont—A Light Vote.

Burlington, Vt., September 6. Election returns came in slowly beyond precedent, much less than half the State having been heard from. Returns indicate a Republican vote of 55,000 and a Democratic vote of 15,000. The vote is very light in the Second District. Only five towns have been heard from. The indications are that there is no choice, which will necessitate a second election in the First District. Stewart is elected by 10,000 majority.

General Wolsey is making a strong effort to organize a complete system of supply for the field force, but the task is much more serious than the foreign element in Egypt is willing to admit. Meanwhile the enemy is content to lie purely on the defensive. It is rumored that Arabi Pasha has brought heavy guns from Cairo to Tel-El-Kebir to silence the British 40-pounders on an armed train. Matters are proceeding smoothly at Kassassin. Food is abundant at present, but the daily consumption is so great that it will not be easy to provide supplies for future use.

Lewis's Plug Hat.

Gus Lewis of Carson were the newest and most attractive plug hat that was noticeable in Reno during the Convention. It is generally supposed that Mr. Lewis purchased the hat under the impression that there would be a secret ballot and he would be appointed as one of the tellers. There was talk of a secret ballot, but as no other hat could be found to match Lewis' and two tellers are needed, it was decided to proceed on the old plan. On Tuesday night some Base Range delegate stole Lewis' hat and the Ormsby people declare that in future no combinations of any sort can be made with Eureka county.

Arabian Grass.

Robert Slade has brought to the office of the Silver State a sample of Arabian grass, raised on J. W. Brown's ranch at Coyote Creek. The stalks are over seven feet long, and have large heads which contain seed that is said to be as nutritious as oats. Mr. Slade says that cattle and horses eat the grass and also the roots with avidity. The grass produces several crops during the season, if the land be irrigated. It is predicted that this is the coming grass in Nevada, and will supersede alfalfa and all other kinds of grass for cattle and horse feed.

Miner's Union Picnic.

The picnic of the Comstock miners on Saturday will be a fine affair. The programme has been added to and improved since it was first published, and will prove both interesting and amusing. The ladies' egg-race will be a laughable feature. Reno will no doubt be well represented, as usual.

THE CONVENTION.

Closes its Labors and Adjourns. Since Die. After the recess from 3 o'clock to 3:30 the ballots proceeded for the remaining offices. There was very little contest, but one ballot being necessary over anything but Surveyor-General, which took two to settle it. Surveyor-General came first and Charles J. Prebble of Washoe, General S. H. Marlette of Ormsby, and Wm. Timson of White Pine were nominated and on the second ballot Prebble received the necessary majority. For Superintendent of Public Instruction, Prof. C. S. Young and Miles Van Waggener of Storey were named, and Young proved successful. For State Printer, J. C. Harlow, J. E. Eckley and J. W. Madrell contested. On the third ballot Harlow was nominated. For Lieutenant Governor, Charles E. Laughton of Carson was the only candidate, and was nominated by acclamation.

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The following delegates were named as members of the Republican State Central Committee of Nevada: Churchill county—Wallace Ferguson; Douglas—T. B. Riekey; Elko—John E. Dixon; C. C. Warner; Esmeralda—James Cross, John B. Gallagher; Eureka—W. W. Hobart, F. N. Robinson, M. D. Foley; Humboldt—Frank Naramore, R. W. Wood; Lander—C. P. Soule, J. A. Blossom; Lincoln—R. S. Clapp, J. Pondade; Lyon—C. H. Rolofson, Thomas R. Mack; Nye—R. M. King, Thomas Warburton; Ormsby—S. T. Swift, W. D. Torreyson; Storey—J. Minor Taylor, F. C. Lord, C. Darby, J. A. Stephens, C. C. Stevenson; Washoe—P. N. Marker, H. M. Frost; White Pine—Thomas Robinson, A. C. Cleveland. The committee organized by the election of U. C. Stevenson as Chairman, J. Minor Taylor as Secretary, and W. W. Hobart Treasurer.

SAD ACCIDENT.

John Larcombe and his Little Son Drowned in the Truckee.

John Larcombe with his little boy, seven years of age, attempted to ford the river at what is known as Bates' ranch, two miles east of Verdi yesterday. Two boys named Woods and Merrill saw them struggling in the water, and tried to reach them with poles, but could not. One of them ran to Verdi and gave the alarm. A number of men went down and found the wagon and horses in about 15 feet of water, above the dam and a little below the ford. Neither body has been found as yet. The boy that remained thought he saw the child's body floating below the dam. Larcombe had been at work clearing off some land and fixing a ditch, and had crossed at that place every day for the past week. The water is quite swift at the ford, but is not considered a dangerous place to cross. Mr. Kruger has been telegraphed to shut off the water so that the bodies may be recovered. Mr. Larcombe is a brother of Mrs. J. K. Everett of Reno. At two o'clock this afternoon the bodies had not been found.

A Lively Evening.

There was a large crowd at the depot last night. The whole town seemed to have emptied itself upon the platform. Strother's band on the balcony of the Palace Hotel was discoursing music to the crowd; half a dozen locomotives shrieked vociferously, and other noises blended with the general chorus. A stranger, unused to our spasmodic displays, would have thought this the largest city on the coast. Ten minutes after the train left a man might have turned a shotgun loose without harming an honest citizen, though some prowling tramp might have got loaded.

Hilarious Delegates.

Some of the hilarious delegates to the convention registered their names at the hotels in a serio-comic manner. At one house, for instance, a couple wrote themselves down "drunk and disorderly," and their accompanying friends were "friendly escorts, in a condition of beastly sobriety at 3 A. M." The last statement must be taken with many grains of allowance.

District Judges.

The Republican delegations from Elko and Humboldt met yesterday and on motion of Wood of Winnemucca, seconded by Clarke of Elko, unanimously nominated Judge R. R. Bigelow for Judge of the Fourth District. The Lyon and Esmeralda delegations nominated Geo. M. A. Murphy for Judge of the Third District.

For Sheriff.

R. P. M. Kelly has concluded to enter the fight for Sheriff of this county. He is a well known citizen of long residence here. His friends are scattered all over the country, and are staunch and true. Mr. Kelly has been a valuable party man for many years. If his name is put at the head of the county ticket some Democrat will get left.

Bold Soldier Boys.

Soldiers have seemed to be plentiful about town for the past day or two. Lieutenant Robinson brought 42 recruits from Jefferson Barracks, Missouri. Ten of them were for Fort Bidwell, fifteen for Northern California and seventeen for Fort Alcatraz, San Francisco.

THE CARSON CURIOSITY.

Another Scientist who Pronounces the Tracks at the Prison to be Those of Man. There has never before been anything found that could be mistaken for fossil footprints of the human species, and if it can be shown that those at Carson were made by man it will be of the greatest interest and benefit to the students. At the Academy of Sciences on Monday evening, in San Francisco, a carefully prepared paper was read by Charles Drayton Gibbs, C. E., the curator of minerals, giving the exact measurements and a topographical description of the prehistoric footprints in the sandstone quarry at Carson. It was also stated that two more footprints had been found; also eighteen smaller ones, shaped like a dog's tracks, which may have been made by a hyena or some large animal of that genus. Near these was found the shore of an ancient lake, fifteen inches in thirty feet being the inclination. The reader said these tracks had been impressed ages ago in a clay deposit three to five inches in thickness, through which the man and mammoth press through, leaving a slight imprint on the sand below, the latter now being a compact sandstone. But no toes, pads or claws are to be seen in any tracks so uncovered. As some who have not seen these footprints may express some doubts of their human origin, ascribing them to a bear or some unknown animal, Mr. Gibbs stated that as a deputy United States surveyor, both in Texas and California, he had trailed not only animals but Indians on the warpath for miles at a time; that he, in common with many frontiersmen of great experience in tracking Indians, also bears and other game, had carefully studied these footprints, and all gave their judgment without a question in favor of their human origin.

LIVELY CONSPIRATORS.

Distinguished Politicians Who Know How to Manipulate Conventions. Sam Wright of the Ormsby delegation was one of the old war-horses of the convention. When he "joined" the fight the air was filled with flying hair. When his dander was up he appeared like a rhinoceros getting ready to take a bath; but when he recovered his poise he was the veritable "Serpent of the Nile," gliding into this delegation and out of that—so slick and quiet that you hardly knew he was there. Bishop of Eureka made some lightning-cuts and shuffles of the pack between adjustments, and Bill Hobart and Doc Lee swung delegates around their heads like patriots waving the American flag. Varian, Cleveland and Stevens were among the liveliest of the "conspicuous," and when pulling in opposite directions were worth a man's while to observe. Parson Hammond was down from Ormsby making several fights, but his baggage went astray. Judge Harris was on deck endeavoring to pull Eckley through for State Printer, but quit when he found that the fight made for Joe Harlow was a stormer from the jump. Charles Laughton did some tall rustling for two days and was the most surprised man in Reno when he found he had no opponent. He now suspects that Bill Gibson never intended to run at all.

A Good Investment.

In 1874 Dr. Hutchinson bought the south half of lot 5 on the east side of Virginia street for $450. The property has paid in rents since the purchase $2,760 and is now sold for $2,000, which is good evidence that real estate is a good investment. J. J. Quinn is the owner of his property now, having bought it yesterday.

Water Suits.

Judge McKinney got Gen. Kirtrell and D. Allen together yesterday and gave his decision in the Churchill county water suits. It was against Bailey & McKee and in favor of Allen's client.
